

Add a Page to Your Main Menu in WordPress

1. Log into the site, and once you're in the Dashboard click "Appearance" → "Menus."
2. In the dropdown next to "Select a menu to edit," make sure "Main Navigation" is chosen.

The screenshot shows the WordPress 'Edit Menus' interface. At the top, there are two tabs: 'Edit Menus' and 'Manage Locations'. Below the tabs, there is a dropdown menu for 'Select a menu to edit:' with 'Main Navigation (Primary Navigation)' selected. To the right of the dropdown is a 'Select' button and a link to 'create a new menu.'. Below the dropdown is a list of pages: '50:350:411-Old English: Introduction to the Language and Literature', 'News', 'CV', and 'Home Page'. The 'Add to Menu' button is highlighted. To the right of the page list is the 'Menu Structure' section, which shows a list of menu items: 'Home' and 'CV'. Below the menu structure is the 'Menu Settings' section, which has 'Auto add pages' unchecked and 'Theme locations' set to 'Primary Navigation' (checked). At the bottom of the menu settings is a 'Delete Menu' link.

3. Check the box next to each page you want to add in the column on the left and click "Add to Menu"
